

Autoworker Activists Alert:

Save the Date: Saturday, January 26th 2008

The Center for Labor Renewal & The Solidarity Education Center

In conjunction with Soldiers of Solidarity, Future of the Union, FactoryRat, Labor Notes & numerous rank & file committees of resistance:

... Will sponsor a one-day meeting for all autoworker activists on the recent concessionary Big Three Auto Contracts. The session will be an opportunity to analyze the economic & structural impact of the negotiations, to share experiences from the effort to mobilize opposition, and explore strategies and tactics for reclaiming unionism's direction and rebuilding rank & file solidarity.

Location: Flint, Michigan

This is an initial notification of the date, location, and general purpose of the session to get this important meeting on your calendar. For those coming from some distance and needing overnight accommodations, reduced rate rooms at a convenient motel are available. There will be no cost for the meeting. A small donation for lunch will be at participant option.
